COMMISSIONERS' COURT MET IN REGULAR SESSION

The regular October meeting of the Commissioners' Court of Medina County convened Monday at 10 A.
M. at the courthouse in Hondo. All members were present.

Bills and accounts of the county and the Commissioners' precincts were received, examined, approved and ordered paid. In addition to other routine matters, the following business was transacted:

Owing to the necessity of vacating several of the county offices in the courthouse while the reconstruction and remodeling work is in progress, the Court ordered temporary occupancy of the following named places rented by the County:

Justice of the Peace and Sheriff are to occupy the Judge Noonan building on Harper Avenue.

Superintendent of Schools is to occupy the second floor of the old Bless store rented from the REA corporation.

The County Treasurer is to occupy an office on the second floor of the Rath building on North Front Street, rented from Matt Rath.

The Commissioners' Court voted to enter into a lease with the parties in Hondo for office rental, the time required to remodel the courthouse.

It was ordered that Jose Burwata, 82 years of age, a pauper and citizen of Medina County, be granted $5.00 per month by the county and beginning Oct. 1, 1940, and continuing monthly until further orders of the Court.

An application was presented by Henry Haass of Castroville requesting of the Court that the State Highway Department be asked to lay down all the curbing on the south side of the west approach of the Castroville bridge, excepting 75 feet directly westward from the west abutment; also to lay down 20 feet additional curb on the north side of the west approach of the bridge, the 20 feet to be either adjacent to the east terminal of the present 40-foot drive-in provision or 10 feet on each side, adjacent to the 40-foot drive-in. After due consideration of the application, the Court by unanimous vote ordered that the application of Mr. Haass be granted and that the County Judge would notify the State Highway Department Division at San Antonio, with the request that the application be considered by the State Highway Department and, if possible, be granted as set forth.

Petition by Herman Koch and 34 other citizens of Medina County requesting improvement of the water drainage on the Hondo-Tarpley road at point about three-fourths of a mile west of Hondo, was heard by the Court, and after due consideration the Court agreed to effect the called-for improvement at the earliest possible date.

The petition by Henry Martin and 39 other citizens of Medina County to gravel all or parts of the Vandenberg north-south public road, a distance of about 2 miles, beginning at the Vandenberg road and terminating at the point of intersection with the Folk road, was heard by the Court. Action on the petition, however, was postponed until a future term of the Court.

The following judges of election were appointed to fill vacancies which have occurred since the regular appointment in February, 1940:

G. M. Turner to fill the place as presiding judge of election in West Devine, Precinct No. 19, in place of Bob Conley.

W. H. H. DuBose to fill the place as presiding judge at Black Creek, Precinct No. 11, replacing S. M.
Howard.

F. A. Bohl to replace John Geiger as presiding judge at LaCoste, Precinct No. 15.

R. D. Bippert to replace F. A.
Bohl as judge of election at LaCoste.

Vernor King to replace Fisher
King as presiding judge of election,
Precinct No. 1, North Hondo. Fisher
King has moved out of the county.

Mrs. Mae Carter as judge of election in West Devine to replace Lonnie Howard.

GOVERNOR O'Daniel has named Oscar J. Bader and Earl Starnes of Hondo and George Briscoe of Devine as the draft board from Medina County. It will be the duty of this board to select the draftees from Medina County when the county's quota is called from the county's registrants to answer for service in the training camps.

Drs. W. H. Smith and H. J. Meyer of Hondo have been named on an appeals board to pass on any claims for exemption from service that may be filed by those called under the draft law.

LIGHTS FOR MEDINA BRIDGE

According to County Judge Arthur H. Rothe, arrangements have been completed by the Commissioners' Court of Medina County, together with the State Highway Department, for the lighting of the Medina River bridge at Castroville. There are to be four lights arranged alternately on the two sides of the bridge so as to illuminate both sidewalks on the bridge.

Completion of the entire program on Highway 90 in the East end of the County is expected sometime in the middle of December, according to highway authorities.

H. H. S. HOMECOMING PLANS PROGRESSING

General interest has been aroused in the proposed Homecoming of Hondo High School graduates and ex-students to be held Monday, November 11, 1940, and former students are enthusiastic in their plans to attend and to cooperate in any way.

Before any great headway can be made in the plans for the celebration, hundreds of invitations to graduates must be sent out. To facilitate this work, correct names and addresses must be in the hands of the homecoming committee, namely, Mr.
J. G. Barry, Dr. O. B. Taylor, and Miss Anne Davis, by the end of this week. Cooperation on the part of those able to supply the necessary names and addresses will be greatly appreciated. A star (*) before the graduate's name indicates the address is unknown or uncertain. Last week's Anvil Herald carried the lists of graduating classes from 1904 through 1926. This week are presented the classes from 1927 to 1940 inclusive.

As for the homecoming edition of this paper, the editor is deep in the hard but amusing work of research in the files of The Huajilla Leaf and The Owl, former and present school publications, and in digging through "the morgue" for cuts of old photographs of former students and classes, athletic teams, and cartoons. Again assistance is needed;
Volumes V and VI, for the years 1923-24 and 1924-25, of The Hua-jilla Leaf, are missing from our files.
Anyone having single copies or bound volumes which they will lend us, it will be greatly appreciated. Please contact this editor at once if you can supply the missing volumes. Business men and merchants are urged to be planning their ads for the homecoming special edition so as to be ready when a representative of the

ATTENTION, TAXPAYERS

Under a recent law affecting the payment of taxes, those paying all their taxes (including poll-taxes) will receive a discount of the percent on the state ad valorem portion of their taxes if paid in October; 2 per cent if paid in November, and 1 per cent in December. After December 31st, the rate will be net.

The law providing for the payment of one-half of the tax in October and November and the other half by the following June is still in force and may be taken advantage of by those preferring that to the other plan.

JUDGE NOONAN APPOINTED HEAD OF ADVISORY BOARD

District Attorney R. J. Noonan of Hondo has been notified of his appointment by the Governor of Texas, as President of The Advisory Board for Registrants Under the Selective Service Law, for Medina County. He in turn has appointed associate members to the Advisory Board, a list of whose names appears under the signed article of instruction, "Notice to Registrants" which appears elsewhere in this paper.

The purpose of the Board is to assist registrants in filling out questionnaires which they will receive within several days after they register on Oct. 16th, and which must be handed in or sent in without delay after they receive same.

This is a voluntary service for which no compensation or other allowance is provided. The duties will consist entirely of giving advice and assistance to those men who are called for service under the Selective Service Law. Information and instructions will be sent direct to each member of the Board.

COTTON FUTURE

By Clayton Rand

All political experiments to enrich the cotton growers, notwithstanding, the future of cotton lies in cheaper and increased yields—its added uses and the intensified sale of its products in the markets of the world.

It is painfully true that while the growers of other products have increased consumption through well-directed advertising effort, little has been done with the printed word to promote the increased sale of cotton.

Even the South, a region so dependent upon the staple, has neglected to make its people cotton-conscious through the advertising columns of the press.

With all the romance that cotton provides to prime the printed salesman and captivate the public, the cigarette-makers, orange-growers, and the raisin-pickers have done a better job than we have of it.

RED INK

The moment that red ink appears in the ledger of a government or an individual it is a trouble warning.
Trouble remains as long as the red ink remains, although there may be legitimate reasons for accepting the red ink as the lesser of two evils, as in the case of our defense program.
Nevertheless, red ink spending and red ink financing are a danger signal to be heeded.

This country was having trouble long before defense became an issue.
According to the ledger, it has not been out of trouble in ten years. Red ink has predominated for a decade.

In other words, for all these years we have had to lean on the future to support us in the present. The fact that this cannot continue as a permanent policy is dimmed by the equally obvious fact that it has continued for a long time with no apparent ill effect. Every industry every business, every financial and statistical service has accepted Government's periodic "contribution to buying power" as an integral part of the economic system. For example, Federal deficit financing in July, pumped (or contributed?) $329-600,000 into the pockets of the American people. Largely overlooked is the fact that this "contribution to buying power" must come out of the people's pockets, for that is the only place government gets money.

The present world crisis makes it necessary that we spend billions of red ink dollars to defend ourselves against aggression. But if we lose sight of the grim fact that as long as red ink dollars are being used, we are in trouble, then we are truly living on borrowed time as well as borrowed cash. Enforcement of thrift and efficiency and elimination of waste in governmental affairs are an integral part of defense and the only cure for red ink dollars.—Industrial News Review.

GET READY FOR WINTER

Here comes winter. In a very short space of time a large part of the country will be experiencing rainy days and cold nights. And not far away are the months of snow and sleet and storm.

Winter is something to get ready for. That means buying new warm clothes, or repairing and cleaning old ones. It means buying wood and coal and fuel oil. It means fixing that leaky spot in the roof that has been neglected during the dry summer. And finally, to the wise householder, it means taking special precautions against a destroyer that waits for winter—fire.

Have your furnace inspected—and have that inspection done by somebody who knows what to look for.
It's no work for an amateur. Have needed repairs effected at once. See that chimneys and flues are properly cleaned.

Hard-pressed heating plants in bad order are one of the most prolific sources of home fires.
It's no fun to wake up in the middle of the night and suddenly realize that your house is burning away beneath you.

Winter means that you'll use lights oftener. Exposed electric wiring should be checked. Pay special attention to lamp cords under rugs and around baseboards—they fray in time, and when that happens a short circuit may occur. Electricity, mishandled, is one of fire's potent allies.

Former H. H. S. Student Honored With Shower Tea

From The Owl.

The home of Mrs. E. E. Starnes was the scene of a lovely miscellaneous shower tea given October 8th from 4 to 7 P. M. in honor of Mrs. W. H. Hubble, who was before her marriage Sept. 28th, Nora Ann Bendele of Hondo. Mrs. E. E. Starnes, Mrs. R. Bendele, mother of the bride, and the honoree, Mrs. Hubble, greeted the guests at the door.

An attractive color scheme of pink and white was carried out throughout the rooms. Rose dahlias and fern formed the bouquets in the reception room while pink queen's crown and white dwarf chrysanthemums formed the centerpiece of the beautiful tea table and the buffet. White tapers were used as the only lighting. Delicious refreshments of chicken salad sandwiches, ice-box cookies, spiced tea and lemon were served to the guests, numbering about fifty. Miss Jonelle Gaines served the sandwiches and Miss Frances Van Fleet poured the tea.

The honoree wore an attractive dress of navy blue sheer with white collars and cuffs. Her corsage was of white chrysanthemums.

Hostesses for this courtesy were Misses Frankie Woolls, Mildred Van Fleet, Frances Van Fleet, Jonelle Gaines, Laura Lee Leinweber, Norma Jane Bless, Bonita Speece and Jean Warden.

Homemakers Sponsor Hayride

From THE OWL.

The old members of the F. H. T. Club honored the new members of the club with a hayride Wednesday night, October 9.

A meeting was first held in the auditorium for the purpose of electing several new officers. Lindabel Saathoff, secretary of the club, took charge of the meeting since the president and vice-president were unable to be present. The following officers were elected: Historian, Dorothy Marie Graff; Parliamentarian, Margy Woolls; Pianist, Frances Beal.

After the meeting all new and old members piled on a truck, filled with hay, which took them to King's Water Hole. A huge bonfire was built and after several games were played an amateur hour was given by the new members of the club, pop corn, baked apples and marshmallows were served to those present. Everyone then got on the truck and came home. Those who attended were: Grace Woolls, Frances Beal, Frances Martin, Doris Stiegler, Shirley Ulrich, Darlene Brucks, Gladys Bohlen, June Caraway, Dorothy Grell, Dorothy Marie Graff, Lindabel Saathoff, Stella Grell, Dorothy Woolls, Frances Ruth Rucker, Ann Haralson, Margy Woolls, Rosie Finger, Vernice Taylor, and Keitha Bendele. Chaperones for the evening were Misses Martha L. Martin, club sponsor, Lois Crowley, Helen Jackson, and Laurinda Rothe.

The club wishes to express its appreciation to Joe William Embrey for the use of his truck, and to Guenther Herff Finger for the hay.

F. F. A. Holds Regular Meeting

From The Owl.

Wednesday, October 2, the Hondo Chapter of Future Farmers held its regular meeting in the Agriculture department. At this meeting it was decided not to have a booth at the fair which is being held at Pearsall.

A dove barbecue will be given to the H. E. Club next Wednesday night at the water works park by the F. F. A. organization. A committee was appointed to see that the birds are brought and prepared. Each boy was asked to bring ten birds. Each year the F. F. A. organization is required to give the H. E. club a social to get their Lone Star Chapter degree. After the meeting, the recreation committee had one boxing match and three wrestling matches for entertainment. It was decided to have recreation of this sort after every meeting.

Owls Meet First De- feat of Season

From The Owl.

The Pearsall Mavericks turned the tables on the Hondo Owls last Friday night by defeating them 6-0. The whole game was hardfought and very little gain was made in the air or on the ground by either the Mavericks or the Owls. The Mavericks made fourteen first downs to the Owls' five.

In the first quarter neither team came within scoring territory, with the defenses holding like stone walls. This quarter was a punting duel between the two teams. The Mavericks gained quite a bit of yardage by quick kicking, and also through the middle of the line. The second quarter was the time for the Owls to score when they started to pass, but the Maverick defense broke them up.

The Mavericks' five-three-two-one defense seemed very effective against the Owls' passing all through the game.

At the beginning of the half both teams started with the spirit to win. When the Owls failed to gain on the ground they took to the air, but very few passes were completed. The Mavericks also took to the air. A long pass took the ball down to the seventeen yard line which set up the only touchdown of the game. After making a first down, which put the Mavericks near the seven yard line, they pulled a fake reverse and passed to an end across the goal line for the score. The extra point was wild which made the score 6-0.

The last quarter was nip and tuck for both teams with the Owls throwing long passes and the Mavericks making gains on the ground. The Owls completed very few passes for long gains. When the game ended, the ball was in possession of the Mavericks near the Owl forty yard line. Score: Mavericks 6 Owls 0.

The business followed with the reports from the various committees. A barbecue dinner will be served November 11th on the campus, plate 30c and 25c.

The next P.-T. A. meeting will be November 18th. The Fifth Grade won the book.

The County Council meeting will be at Biry, Saturday, November 9, at 2:30 P. M. Delegates to this meeting are Mrs. George Reitzer, Mrs. Marguerite Murrill, Mrs. C. F. Schweers, Mrs. Jim Duncan, Mrs. Robert Graff, and Mrs. Charlie Tazzen.

THIRD GRADE NEWS

From The Owl.

The Third Grade is enjoying their newspaper, "My Weekly Reader", which they get each Monday morning. Each member of the class is a subscriber. They are reading this newspaper to improve their skill in reading as well as for enjoyment and the gathering of information. Last week the science cover was very interesting. They learned that gasoline can be made from seaweed, cornstalks sugar cane, and cotton plants. Dr. Ernst Berl of Carnegie Laboratories is responsible for this discovery. This is all very important because in some countries in Europe, people cannot buy gasoline because of the war.

U. S. A. CLUB

From The Owl.

The regular meeting of the U. S. A. Club was held October 11. The meeting was called to order by Laura Ann Muennink, the president. After the discussion of business matters, the program was turned over to the program committee. The first act consisted of Willie Jean Nester and Laura Ann Muennink presenting a tap dance. This was followed by a style show featuring Garland Martin. Garland Martin won the prize for offering the best entertainment and Arthur Dawson won a prize for getting the most words out of "Mary Pickford". Both sides of the room were asked riddles by Neoma Cosgrove.

OWLS MEET WARHORSES IN CONFERENCE GAME

From THE OWL.

The Hondo Owls will meet the Devine Warhorses in a conference game on Barry Field Friday night and the starting time will be eight o'clock. According to previous games played by Devine, the game is scheduled to be a hard fought game and will be exciting. In games before, the Devine Warhorses were defeated by the Pearsall Mavericks 9-0, and last Friday night the Del Rio team defeated them by a score of 26-0. The Pearsall Mavericks defeated the Owls 6-0 so according to the corresponding scores the game is to be hard fought. The Owls got a bad game off of their system last Friday night and are expected to really go to town against the Warhorses, for it is said that all wild horses can be broken or tamed.

WEEK-END WANDERINGS

From The Owl.

Those who were in San Antonio over the week-end were Glenrose Brucks, Eloise Kollman, Jonelle Gaines, Darlene Brucks and James Weynand.

Leslie Earl Holloway was in Uvalde Saturday and Sunday.

June Caraway spent Thursday, Friday and Saturday in Houston.

Ina Joyce Brucks, Virginia Moehring, and Frances Bendele were in Castroville Sunday.

F. F. A. EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE MEETS

From THE OWL.

The F. F. A. executive committee met last Wednesday night and worked on the requirements for the Lone Star Degree. At this meeting it was also decided to initiate the greenhands and also the Future Farmers at a special meeting which will be called before November 1st.

There was a little Dachshund once. So long he had no notion How long it took to notify His tail of his emotion.

And so it was that while his eyes Were filled with woe and sadness His little tail kept wagging Because of previous gladness.

Waiter (observing diner's dissatisfaction): Wasn't your egg cooked long enough, sir?

Diner: Yes, but it wasn't cooked soon enough.

THE RECORD... Facts That Concern You

No. 23 of a series

WOULD YOU CUT DOWN THE APPLE TREE?

You'll probably find a few bad apples in a bushel of good ones. That's the way it is with beer retailing in America.

There are hundreds of thousands of wholesome, law-abiding beer retail establishments that sell good beer—the refreshing, appetizing beverage of moderation. At the same time, there is a handful of undesirable, anti-social taverns. Unfortunately, these few outlaw establishments bring discredit to the entire beer industry.

To protect your right to drink good beer, the Brewing Industry wants such anti-social retailers eliminated entirely. It has instituted a "clean-up or close-up" program—now in effect in some states and being extended.

We'd like you to know about this socially important program. May we tell you about it in an interesting free booklet? Write: United Brewers Industrial Foundation, 19 East 40th Street, New York, N. Y.

Val Verde County Herald. MADEL ZUBERBUELER, BRIDE-ELECT, BEING HONORED IN COMSTOCK

Miss Mabel Zuberbueler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Zuberbueler of Comstock, is being complimented with a number of lovely social courtesies preceding her marriage to Martin King, also of Comstock, on Oct. 10.
These courtesies include a miscellaneous shower Tuesday from 4 to 8 p. m., and a dinner Wednesday evening. Mrs. P. W. Kelly will be hostess at the shower in her Comstock home and Mrs. A. F. Haby will be hostess at the dinner Wednesday evening in her home in Comstock.

Miss Zuberbueler's engagement and approaching marriage was announced about 10 days ago by her parents.

BRIDE-ELECT HONORED AT LOVELY TEA

Exquisite floral arrangements formed a lovely and fitting setting for the seated tea and miscellaneous shower complimenting Miss Mabel Zuberbueler, bride-elect of Martin King, when Mrs. P. W. Kelly entertained Tuesday afternoon in her home in Comstock.
Guests were received by the hostess and by the honoree. Mrs. Kelly wore black with a frilled bolero and her bouquet was of gardenias tied with gold ribbon. Miss Zuberbueler was lovely in a taffeta gown of sea-foam blue, the puffed, short sleeves and the bouffant skirt trimmed with love-knots of velvet ribbon in deeper tones of blue. Her shoulier bouquet was of tuberose begonias in a soft coral tone.

Mrs. A. F. Haby and Mrs. Albert Zuberbueler alternated in presiding at the bride's book of white kid lettered in gold. An arrangement of dahlias in a miniature wagon adorned the registration table. The tea table was laid in a lovely cloth of cutwork and lace and centered with a modernistic arrangement of white calla lilies and white tapers in a low white pottery bowl decorated with a figurine. During the first hour, Mrs. E. M. Zuberbueler and Mrs. C. A. Brotherton presided at the tea table and during the second hour, Miss Agnes Haby and Mrs. Joe Huesser, great-aunt of the bride-elect, presided. They were assisted by Miss Eline Zuberbueler and Mrs. Albert Zuberbueler. An arrangement of yellow dahlias and white chrysanthemums in a low bowl flanked by white tapers burning in silver holders adorned the buffet. Dahlias in tones of rose formed lovely decorations in the living room.

During the afternoon, a program including the following numbers, was offered: piano solo, "Moonlight Sonata", Anna Bess Haby; musical reading, "The Youngest in the Family", Mary Pat Zuberbueler; "Now I Have You", Mrs. D. H. McCleskey; "The Life of Mabel Zuberbueler", an illustrated musical reading offered by Mesdames Guy Schrier, Fred Humphreys and C. I. Skinner, the presentation being an original composition by Mrs. Skinner.

For the presentation of the gifts, the bride-elect was instructed to follow a string that led all over the Kelly home. During her search, tall white tapers in wrought iron floor standards bedecked in ivy were brought into the living room and placed before a large white chest to form an improvised altar. To the strains of the wedding march, Bobby and Betty Kelly, in bridal array, entered and took their place before the altar. The little bride was gownned in floor-length white net over white taffeta with bouffant skirt adorned with white satin bows. Her shirred cap held in place her veil of net and she carried a quaint nosegay of white asters. The string followed by the honoree led to the little bride, who concealed a gift beneath her full skirt. The chest of gifts, as well as a hamper of remembrances, were then presented to Miss Zuberbueler. After they were unwrapped and shown to the guests, she expressed her appreciation.

Mrs. Katie Huesser of Castroville and Miss Agnes Haby of Dunlay are guests in the E. M. Zuberbueler home, having come to be here for the pre-nuptial courtesies and the wedding of Miss Mabel Zuberbueler. Mrs. Huesser is an aunt and Miss Haby is a sister of Mrs. Zuberbueler.

Mr. and Mrs. John Rosenow of Carta Valley were visitors in Del Rio Tuesday.

Miss Lorene Martin has returned from San Antonio, where she spent several days.

A WINK AND A BLINK Or THE POOR GOVERNMENT!

It is rather very odd, now don't you think, How the Administration—gets its way with but a 'wink'? And then again on Issues, which to High-Heaven stink, The 'poor' administration is 'out-pointed' and can only 'blink'!

Twenty Floyd County farm families will realize an average of $100 a year extra income through the organization of an egg marketing association. The association, according to the Floyd County agricultural and home demonstration agents, D. F. Bredthauer and Edith Lois Wilson, is the outgrowth of work by the local land use planning committee. A sub-committee authorized to develop local markets reported, among other things, that farm eggs were being penalized because of their low grade. The 20 families agreed to form a demonstration association. A committee visited the farm of each member, inspected the flock and equipment and made recommendations for increasing the production and marketing of infertile eggs. A sales committee contacted a local buyer and agreed to deliver 1,000 dozen infertile, high quality eggs each week at a price 4 cents a dozen above the local market. After a 30 days period of improvement, the members began delivery of the eggs. Extra income to date has averaged $40 per week.

In improving pastures the first essential in fertilizers is phosphorus. Lime is seldom needed in Texas west of the Trinity River. Nitrogen, another essential, can be supplied by growing pasture legumes after phosphorus has been applied.

Your Community Appreciates

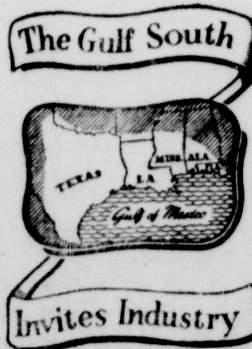

GOOD CITIZENS

● The life of your community—every community—depends on the law-abiding, hard-working, neighborly people who make up its citizenry. That being true, these Companies and associated Company and their employees who live here are good citizens of your community—respectable, hard working, friendly.

● Our citizenship does not end, however, with that. We pay taxes to support local, state and national governments, maintain payrolls that are spent at home to help local business, spend thousands of dollars locally for materials and equipment, and take part in numberless civic and public enterprises! We have invested millions of dollars in leases, drilling equipment, gathering systems, transmission lines, compressor stations, natural gasoline extraction plants, and other costly facilities, to keep the service going.

● Our first duty as an organization is to provide dependable Natural Gas Service. This we do. Beyond this, like all good citizens, we do more, and are proud of it, just as you are proud of your good citizenship!

RECENT BRIDE HONORED

A miscellaneous shower was given in honor of Mrs. Stanley Saathoff, a recent bride, Wednesday, Oct. 9, at the Quihar parish hall from 2 to 4 P. M. The Halloween motif was carried out in decorations.

While a beautiful march was played by Miss Hertha Weber the honoree, who was attired in blue alpaca, was led to her place of honor by little Colby Joe Heyen and Frances Ann Boehle.

Then the following toast was read by Miss Lucille Boehle: Here's to the bride, long may she reign.

As queen of love in hubby's heart. May she enjoy much happiness And may it ne'er from her depart.

Here's to her health, here's to her wealth. Long may they live, progress and bloom.

And may content be ever hers To chase the evil spirits' gloom.

Here's to the home where she'll abide.

May it a pleasant dwelling be, With all that comfort can supply To fill it full of harmony.

The gifts were then presented to the honoree who passed them on for the guests to inspect and admire. She was the recipient of many beautiful and useful gifts. In her own sweet way the bride thanked her many friends for the lovely gifts.

The hostesses then served refreshments consisting of ham sandwiches, potato chips, light and dark cake and iced tea. Little orange cups with orange and black candy were the plate favors.

WIEMERS-SCHROEDER

A lovely wedding was solemnized at the Immanuel's Lutheran church of Knippa, Saturday, October 5, 1940, at 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon, when Miss Norma Schroeder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theo. H. Schroeder of Knippa, became the bride of Mr. Wesley Wiemers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Wiemers of New Fountain. The pastor, Rev. G. Langner officiated in the double ring ceremony.

Ferns and pot plants adorned the church, white tapers burned on the altar. Miss Eleanor Vahrenkamp played the traditional nuptial music and Miss Minnie Wiemers, sister of the bridegroom, sang "I Love You Truly".

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a floor-length ivory satin gown. Her long veil was held in place with a wreath of orange blossoms and she carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations and feverfew.

The bride's attendants were Miss Erna Schroeder, maid of honor, and Misses Ella Falkenberg and Edna Truener, bridesmaids. Miss Schroeder was dressed in pastel pink taffeta frock, and she carried a colonial bouquet of orchid gladioli and wine carnations. Miss Falkenberg was attired in pastel blue frock and carried a colonial bouquet of pink gladioli and blue cornflowers. Miss Truener wore a gown of gold and white crepe and carried gold and white chrysanthemums. Master Hugo Falkenberg was ring-bearer, and Misses Alva Jean and Lillian Dornbusch, nieces of the bride, were the flower girls. They were blue and pink taffeta dresses and carried white rose petal baskets with pink and blue bows, out of which they scattered ink rose petals along the bridal path on which the bride entered.

The bridegroom's attendants included his brother, Mr. Marvin Wiemers, best man, and Messrs. Ruben and Elgin Wiemers, groomsmen.

Following the ceremony a barbecue dinner was served at the country home of the bride's parents. In the dining room the table was centered with a large white wedding cake, adorned with white roses and green leaves and topped with a white bell tied in an upright good-luck horseshoe and surrounded by white doves.

Mr. and Mrs. Wiemers left after the dinner for a trip to Rosenberg, Houston, and Galveston.

HUESER-SCHMIDT

A simple but impressive ceremony was that which united Miss Annie Schmidt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Schmidt of D'Hanis, and James Day Huesser, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Huesser of Hondo, in marriage Saturday, October 12, 1940, in the rectory of Holy Cross Catholic Church in D'Hanis. Rev. Eugene Zuber performed the ceremony and attendants were Miss Melverda Poerner and Oscar Rohrbach. Mr. and Mrs. Huesser will make their home on the Huesser ranch near D'Hanis.

The bride is a graduate of D'Hanis High School. The bridegroom attended St. John's Parochial School and Hondo High School.

County Clerk S. A. Jungman's office was a busy place Thursday, with the presiding officers from the twenty voting precincts of the county making their returns of results in their precincts of the selective draft registration Wednesday.

We furnish a special box of 100 No. 6 envelopes and 200 8-1-2x 5-1-2 letter sheets, every piece printed with your name and address, for the small price of $1.00. You can't beat this in value anywhere. Try a box at the Anvil Herald office.

A wet norther blew in Monday night, with a precipitation amounting to .32 of an inch in Hondo. Rainfall over this section was reported to be little more or less. After cool weather for several days we are now getting our first real feel of "Indian Summer" which is already past in our northern neighboring states.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Chapman left Saturday for Fort Worth and Dallas and returned home Monday evening. In the former city they visited Mr. and Mrs. Louis Grube and young son, Douglass King, and in Dallas they attended the State Fair of Texas. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Rath, who continued on to Lansing, Michigan, Monday.

Arthur Jungman visited his mother, Mrs. P. Jungman, here last Thursday and left the following day for Virginia where he will enter service in the U. S. Army. He has been an active member of the National Guard but resigned his position with the T. & N. O. Railroad at Victoria to join the regular army. His station and his rank are not known at this time.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Saathoff spent Friday and Saturday in San Antonio attending the Old Trail Drivers' Convention. There was an attendance of seventy members and numerous guests and all had a big time. Every member present had passed his 70th year, but among them all Mr. Saathoff never found a member who was on the trail with him in '82 when he earned the sobriquet of Kansas John. During his travels up the trail, he became quite familiar with conditions in Dodge City, Kansas; but when he saw the movie that portrays the scenes of that day and time, only the drinking, gambling and shooting had a familiar look—the prairies had grown shade trees about the buildings that were changed and the motley longhorns had lost their long horns and acquired a white Hereford face! But the barbecue Saturday and the closing dance Saturday night were the real thing.

Texas farmers who try to get too much cotton into their bales may be at least partly responsible for damage that shows up later when the bales go through the compress. F. E. Lichte, cotton gin specialist of the Texas A. and M. Extension service, points out, "When cotton is under extreme pressure, as is the case at the compress, fibers in the oversized bales are likely to be torn and cut in such a manner that their value to the spinner is reduced," Lichte said. Tests conducted by the U. S. Department of Agriculture show a larger percentage of air-cut damage in oversized bales than in normal bales. Though the farmer does not suffer directly, except in the few cases where he is the owner of the bale at the time it is compressed, he does suffer through the lower prices brokers and mills must pay for other purchases to offset these losses. The way to reduce this damage is to deliver only enough seed cotton to the gin to produce a bale of ginned lint weighing 500 pounds or thereabouts. "If the tendency towards overweight does not stop, it is probable that we will see the trade put on a penalty for bales over 550 pounds just as lightweight bales are now penalized," Lichte said. The trade is beginning to reserve the right to reject bales in excess of 600 pounds. The present penalties are $1.00 for bales under 450 pounds; $2.00 for those under 400 pounds; and those under 350 pounds not acceptable.

Mr. Robert L. Kollman informed us that on Monday of this week he received a carload of new 1941 Chevrolet. He now has on display at the Bob Kollman Chevrolet Co., of Hondo, two sedans, one two-door and a pickup. Since the new 1941 Chevrolet went on display September 21st, a large number of interested parties have been in to see the new model.

Mr. John T. (Lydia) Newsom, of Whittier, California visited relatives and friends here for the past week during her stay here she was a guest at the home of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Haas. Among the courtesies extended to Mrs. Newsom during her visit was an informal dinner party on Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Haas.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton (Buster) Rath left Saturday for Dallas where they attended the State Fair of Texas. On Monday they left by train for Lansing, Michigan, where they will receive their new 1941 Oldsmobile in which they will make the trip back to Hondo, Texas. En route home they plan to go by way of Memphis, Tennessee, where they will tour the new Firestone plant. Mr. and Mrs. Rath expect to be gone about two weeks.

The Texas Beekeepers Association and their Ladies' Auxiliary will celebrate the third annual Texas Honey Week October 28-Nov. 3. They have secured displays of honey in all of the food stores in San Antonio. The displays will make a specialty of products containing honey. Dairyland stores will supply all of those products with honey ice cream. On Sunday, November 3, at 3 P. M., an entertainment free and open to the public will be given at the Dairyland Cultural Laboratory, San Antonio, by the speaker. The topic will be "Valuable Plants Native to Texas." This talk will include the story of how honey reaches the table and the native plants of the state. Honey sweetened refreshments will be served and copies of the book "The American Honey Industry" will be given to those who are interested in the use of honey in the home. The members of the Ladies' Auxiliary residing in San Antonio will be very much pleased if all of our readers interested in beekeeping will attend this meeting.

NAVY DAY

NAVY DAY was first celebrated in 1922 and was sponsored by the NAVY LEAGUE of the United States, a voluntary association of individuals who seek to place information about the U. S. NAVY before the citizens of this country. Since that time the official approval and cooperation of all patriotic and veterans associations have been offered in support of observance of this day.

The day selected to hold observance of NAVY DAY is October 27. This day was chosen for two reasons: First, on October 27, 1775, members of the Continental Congress introduced the first Navy Bill; Second, October 27th is the Anniversary of the birth of Theodore Roosevelt, who was born on 27 October 1858, in New York City. It is fitting and proper that Roosevelt should be so honored, for he more than any one man in history of our country, adopted, preached and pursued an aggressive policy with respect to the building and maintaining of a Navy strength adequate to our needs and position as a great world power. As a means to that end he continually strove to bring the Navy into closer contact with the people from whom it sprung, by whom it was supported, and for whom it existed.

Therefore, October 27 is observed each year as Navy Day, with the hope that the people will become better acquainted with the traditions, ideals and purposes of their Navy. As interested parties in this Federal institution, and upon whom its proper maintenance very largely depends, it is confidently believed that the more people know about their "FIRST LINE OF DEFENSE", the more likely it will be maintained in a condition to meet any national emergency that may arise. Therefore, on this special day it is sincerely hoped that the people will take advantage of the opportunity afforded to become better acquainted with the Navy as it is and to give thought to the honorable services of the Navy in the past. On this day the newspapers will have timely articles about the Navy, and it is hoped that everyone will read these articles. It is the duty of every American to see that we have a Navy as large as the Treaty strength allows. Your NAVY is an important factor in keeping this country at peace with the world.

PERSONAL APPEARANCE

A new slant on the yokel boy and the Brooklyn Bridge is given by BUSTER RATH, whose friends were startled to get special editions of the Texas Fair News with black 3-inch high headlines shouting, "M. A. RATH GETS BARGAIN; BUYS LAKE MICHIGAN". . . we didn't know he was a "blasted plutocrat".

The selective draft and registration has nearly everyone—male and female—excited. . . a lot of palaver would be avoided if DUTZ DAVIS had her way. . . "put all the old maids—especially the school teachers—on the front line first. . . that's all they're good for any way." (Speaking for yourself, Toots?) . . . MR. and MRS. JACOB FOHN will probably agree with her for besides having one son (JIMMY FOHN, 26) already in the army (staff sergeant at Brooks Field) they have five other sons who registered for conscription Wednesday.

JACK, 21, and EDWARD, 23, of Hondo; HORACE, 29, of Navasota; SKEET, 31, of Robstown; and CLARENCE, 35, Hondo. MILTON, 37, the oldest of seven sons, was too old to register.

Did You Know That: RICHARD WEBER holds an airplane pilot's license. . . ELOISE KOLLMAN's feet look tinier than ever in wedgies. . . LELA LAUGHINGHOUSE has a very beautiful antique cameo that can be worn on a chain or as a pin. . . HERBERT BULGERIN annihilates possums with a broomstick. . . J. G. BARRY claims he is the best in the system when it comes to punishing a punching bag (at least he doesn't get slapped back).

This may call down a "blitzkrieg" around our head: but we'd like to ask: MRS. JESSIE MAE FOHN for the particulars on the "Battle of Britsch's Crossing". . . and we'd like to know: What is the threat LAWRENCE BRUCKS holds over HOMER WILSON and vice-versa, that keeps both of 'em from "telling all" for publication in P. A.

REA NEWS

The contractor on the B Project has started stringing conductor—the Cooperative members should know what that means; once the wire begins to go up it means only a very short time until the electric current will be available to them.

To date there are about 30 miles of poles up, and more are being added every day.

The staking crew has finished the entire 102 miles of line, the houses have been tagged, and all members should make every effort to have their houses wired immediately.

The inspector, Mr. R. B. Hendricks, is expected to be back in Hondo next Monday, and the Cooperative would like to be able to turn over a large number of inspection jobs to him when he comes. On his last visit he reminded the Board Members and office staff that 80% of all members' houses must be wired before any section of the lines could be energized.

The right-of-way clearing crew is winding up its duties this week; the men are going back over the main line now and clearing brush and trimming trees on the numerous taps that they omitted on their first survey.

The Rural Electrification Administration held a meeting in Fort Worth for all Project Superintendents on Wednesday and Thursday of this week, and Mr. Ted Bredthauer, Manager of the Medina Electric Cooperative, Inc., attended the meeting, accompanied by the counsel, Mr. Wm. C. Church.

As we go to press the Bookkeeper, Miss Grace Mumme, is making arrangements to attend a two-day school to be held in Dallas—she is to learn all the latest methods of keeping books in accordance with REA instructions.

The Hondo Parent-Teacher Association, meeting in regular session Monday, October 14, voted to co-operate with the Alumni Association in making a success of the Homecoming of Hondo High School graduates and ex-students Monday, November 11, 1940, by giving a barbecue dinner on the school campus. Plates will be sold for 25c and 30c.

Mr. Bailey Rogers, president of the P.-T.-A., presided, while Mrs. Emmett Kollman was in charge of the program. The assembly opened the program by singing "America", accompanied by Miss Lois Crowley at the piano. A very amusing play, "The Story of Horace", was presented by the Fourth Grade under the direction of Miss Laurinda Rothe.

Superintendent J. G. Barry was the speaker for the afternoon, his subject being "Well Founded Attitudes".

Routine matters, with reading of the minutes and communications by the Secretary, Mrs. Jim Amberson, and reports of standing committees, completed the business.

The Fifth Grade won the room count with eleven mothers present.

Bankruptcy Threatens U. S.

Willkie Hits Hard at Deficit, Spending and Third Term.

Wendell Willkie is hitting hard at the third term and the national debt as he wages his campaign as the Republican nominee for the presidency. To his mind, both the national debt and the third term are linked together. Both contain threats against the "American Way of Life"; threats of a possible dictatorship.

In the speeches Mr. Willkie has made since the campaign opened, he has been asserting that every democracy which has fallen in the course of history has been destroyed because of overwhelming debt. "For eight long years we have been going down that road. Now the man who has brought that threat to us is asking for a third term."

"We have existed in this country for 160 years under the great tradition that two terms are enough for any president. Yet now, when of all times democracy and the democratic way of life are facing their greatest test, when of all times we should preserve all of the processes of the democratic system, we have a man who says, 'I am indispensable.'"

"This campaign is a crusade for the preservation of the American way of life. This is a crusade to establish an example of liberty for all the world. It is a crusade against the concentration of power in Washington. It is a crusade against the egotism of the doctrine of the indispensable man."

Mr. Willkie's indorsement of the present farm program, with modifications to remove objectionable features of administration, eliminates the question of benefit payments as a campaign issue. But on the debt and the third term, Mr. Willkie has fundamental issues to take to the farmer, home owner and business man. The national debt, rapidly approaching 50 billion dollars, he describes as a mortgage on every farm, home and business in America. He predicts that if President Roosevelt is re-elected, the debt will grow to 75 billion dollars within the next four years.

"The great immediate benefit which can be brought to agriculture," says Mr. Willkie, "is restoration of business-like methods in government and the return of the present ten million unemployed to the payrolls so they again can become purchasers of the farmer's products. I believe both things could be brought about. All that is needed is the touchstone of someone who knows about production, who knows that the most glorious thing in the country is not words, but work."

Did Not Produce

That trade agreements have not produced foreign markets for American farmers is evidenced by a drop of $104,000,000 in agricultural products exported during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1939, as compared with the fiscal year ending June 30, 1934—the year prior to the enactment of the Reciprocal Trade agreement act.

Cotton to Corn

Through regulation, Secretary Wallace has reduced the corn acreage of the corn producing states of the North by 5,139,000 acres. But the farmers of cotton producing states of the South have been encouraged to raise corn instead of cotton, and increased their corn acreage by 5,814,000 acres.

Did Not Work

That New Deal reciprocal trade agreements did not attract buyers is shown by the purchase, by countries with which these agreements were made, of meat products to the value of 17,644,000 pounds in 1935, before the agreements were made, and only 15,175,000 pounds in 1939, when all agreements were in effect.

Reduced Farm Tariffs

Reciprocal trade agreements made by the New Deal reduced the tariff on 152 agricultural products, despite candidate Roosevelt's statement in 1932: "I know of no excessively high tariff duties on farm products... that should be lowered."

The Farm Share

On a per capita basis, the farm population of America must carry about one-fourth, approximately $11,000,000,000, of the national debt. It would take the value of all farm crops for two years to pay the farmers' share.

A Record

Franklin Roosevelt is the only president to serve eight years without balancing the budget in any one year. We have been at peace throughout the eight years.

Your Share $452.00

Total New Deal expenditures from 1933 to 1940, according to the President's report to Congress, were $58,773,000,000. That is $452.00 for each man, woman and child in the nation.

OUR MONTHLY MEDITATION

Jesus saw Nathanael coming to him, and saith to him, Behold! an Israelite indeed, in whom is no guile. John 1:47.

We remember the quaint little dialogue between the two men. Philip: We have found him... Jesus of Nazareth. Nathanael: Can there any good thing come out of Nazareth? Philip: Come and see. And Nathanael swallowed his petty prejudice and came to Jesus. Philip knew his man. Arguments would have prolonged the suspense and tension. Such types of men do not listen to proofs and controversial logic. They are always right by foregone conclusions. Opposition merely puts fire into the fat of the frying-pan. They trust their own eyes and ears and general observation more than that of others. Yet they are not dead sure about their convictions. They admit the secret possibility of a flaw and fluctuation, a crack somewhere in their method of reasoning. They are not stubbornly sold to their own ideas. Interest and curiosity urges them on. And in this case, the press and urge of his heart for the very One for Whom he had hoped and prayed ever so long. Inconsistent or not with his former, seemingly obstinate and inflexible declaration, he comes and sees for himself.

A walk in silence. His mind preoccupied to an almost painful degree that words cannot even come in edgewise, the groom, as it were, ushering the visitor into the presence of a president or king, with heart-beating, open-mouthed awe. And what a king! Usually even the most glibulous haw and mumble and stutter for words at such occasions. An awkward bow and curtsy often stands for a long and well-prepared answer or speech. Words had failed. And the fresh outside air makes the visitor feel much better. But the Lord spares our friend Nathanael any and all embarrassment. "Behold! an Israelite indeed, in whom is no guile." Significant, momentous words. True?

With such words Nathanael was received. That broke the ice. That allayed all fears or bashfulness. Words almost too good to believe. An Israelite in a true cast, as he should be. More than one type of Israelites in His mind? Yes, as in every nationality. The true and the false, the natural, ideal exponent of what the term stands for, and the pretender, the cheap imitator. Jacob, the tribal father of the race, in his younger days, was full of guile, deceit, cunning and duplicity. The type so well known and detested in our days. After his combat at the Ford of Jabbok (Gen. 32) he received the new name, Israel, signifying one who has struggled with God and overcome by surrendering completely to God and a new, clean life, a prince of a fellow in the true sense, with God's stamp of approbation. And Nathanael represented that second type? A man of candor, veracity, probity, plain dealing, his word his bond, the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, artless, no dissimulation, no ulterior motive, no mental reservation, no selfishness in the glittering garb of sanctity, unctious, patriotism, reverence and servile courtesy? No guile? No axe to grind? Nathanael, such a type?

Had Jesus been an unscrupulous flatterer, just blarneying; a scheming ward heeler, fishing for votes or assent; a social lion, anxious for apple-sauce; a designing magnate, angling for a fat contract, we might assume that He had purposely overdrawn and over-colored that picture and we might have shelved the whole episode with those daily exhibits in advertising, love-ditties, politics, neutrality, news-casts, censorship and general propaganda, where the apparent streak of guile is often so dominant, so loud and so yellow. But it is the Lord speaking, in Whom there is no guile, no over-estimation nor underestimation, and we are glad with Him that He found a man so different from the general ilk and strine. Wonder what He would say in looking us over? —C. W.

Screwworm flies are becoming so numerous in the lower escarpment area in southwest Texas—Bandera to Val Verde counties—that practically every wounded animal is likely to be infested with this parasite. Conditions last winter were adverse to the screwworm, and most stockmen in the sheep and goat country sheared early and treated the few early spring screwworm cases that did occur. These practices helped keep the number of screwworm cases down to the lowest point during any spring of the past five years, Cameron Siddall, entomologist of the Texas A. and M. Extension Service, reports. After the weather almost exterminated the screwworms last winter, it turned right around with conditions very favorable to the insects, and if the same conditions hold during the summer, the pests may yet cause heavy losses. Infestations will occur all over Texas and as far north as Kansas and Missouri before the screwworm season is over, it is said.

ESTABLISHING AND MAINTAINING CLOVER IN PERMANENT PASTURES IN SOUTHEASTERN TEXAS

By E. K. Crouch, in charge East Texas Pasture Investigations, Lufkin, Texas.

Excellent stands of clover have been established on bottom land pastures consisting of carpet, dallis, and Bermuda grasses on the Lufkin Pasture Experiment Station in East Texas. These soils are comparatively poor and were considered worn out when the development of pastures began. The clovers used were White Dutch, hop, Persian, cluster, bur, and subterranean. Observations after four years' trials show that White Dutch and hop are the predominating clovers. White Dutch growing best on the bottom lands, while the hop prefers the higher, better-drained and less fertile lands. These two clovers are largely responsible for the remarkable improvement in the station pastures which carry an average of a cow and a calf on an acre and a half from early March to late November and which have been termed by authorities to be among the best clover pastures in the United States. The establishment of these clovers has made it possible to furnish good grazing by March 1, which is from 30 to 60 days earlier than native grass pastures and, in addition, they increase the quality and amount of the grazing furnished by the carpet, dallis, and Bermuda grasses which extend the pasturage after the clovers have ceased their growth in the early summer.

Preparation of Land

In April, 1934, the land which comprises the present pasture was cleared of brush, sprouts, tall weeds, and stumps, disked, harrowed, and dragged with a railroad iron in order to level it as much as possible. It was then fenced off into eight small pastures of about 5 acres each and each pasture was seeded to a different mixture of grasses and clovers, using a 5-disk grain drill. Due to heavy weed growth the entire area was mowed three times during the summer and, as there was only one effective rain, the pastures had little chance to develop. In June 1935, an application of 200 pounds per acre of a 4-8-4 fertilizer was placed on all of the pasture and in 1936 a blanket application of 300 pounds of T. V. A. triple super-phosphate was drilled in. In addition, 3 pounds of White Dutch clover and 2 pounds of hop clover were drilled in on all of the pastures in early fall. The present stand of these clovers is a result of this planting.

Time of Planting

From the latter part of September to the middle of November was the most desirable time for planting. Earlier plantings encountered hot, dry weather and later plantings were winterkilled before becoming well established. Spring plantings are not feasible because at this time of the year these clovers normally bloom and reseed. Even an early spring planting does not allow sufficient time for maturity of the plants before the arrival of hot, dry weather. At this point, it is important to mention that both White Dutch and hop clovers are annuals under our conditions, and for this reason must be allowed to produce seed each spring in order to volunteer in the fall. It is also important to bear in mind that the increase in temperature and the decrease of the moisture content of the soil are the two main factors which stop the growth of the clovers in early summer.

White Dutch and hop clovers should be seeded between the recommended planting dates whether moisture conditions are good or bad. Nature has prepared the clovers to perpetuate themselves fairly well in this respect in that the seed-coats have varying degrees of hardness. Seeds having soft coats will germinate after the first shower, while those with extra hard coats may not even come up until the second year. Therefore, there is no occasion for alarm to see what appears to be a good stand lost because of failure to receive continued rainfall after planting, because usually plenty of seed remain to germinate the following season.

Method of Planting

The Station has obtained good results from plantings made with a grain drill equipped with a grass seed attachment. The use of a disk harrow followed with a broadcasting of the seed also gave good results, and it is known that good stands can be secured by broadcasting seed in the fall on closely grazed or mowed sod without any tillage whatever. This method has not yet been used on the Lufkin station. Manure from animals grazing the mature clovers when spread over comparatively open woods pasture gave excellent stands of the clovers. If the disk method of planting is to be used, the disk should be set almost straight so as to mark a shallow furrow rather than to turn the soil. It should be borne in mind that the clover seeds should never be covered deeper than one-half inch and only two to three pounds of each clover are required per acre. Although our experiments do not indicate necessity for inoculating White Dutch clover, it is recommended that it be inoculated along with the hop clover, just as a precautionary measure.

Management

An excessive growth of grass between the time of planting and the occurrence of a killing frost should be prevented either by grazing or mowing. The grasses will have a tendency to choke out the young clovers if allowed to become tall, and of course this would be as detrimental as planting in tall grasses. If grazing rather than mowing is followed, the livestock may pull up and trample out some of the clover plants, but losses from this source will not be as great as those resulting from choking out of clovers by tall grasses. It is perhaps best, although not essential, to remove all livestock soon after killing frost and allow the clover to make fair growth. However, should they make an excessive growth at any time during the winter, they should be grazed down to afford better protection from freezes.

Based on this Station's experience, livestock may be turned on the clovers by the first part of March and soon thereafter the clovers will be making sufficiently rapid growth to render winter feeding unnecessary. Moderate grazing should be followed the first year unless exceptional growth and coverage are obtained. After allowing one year for the clovers to become well established, the pasture may be stocked to the capacity of one or two cows per acre through March, April, and May. Under favorable rainfall conditions, it is possible to cut excellent clover and grass hay in addition to a heavy rate of stocking. The Station cut 400 bales from the 40-acre pasture in 1939 and 550 bales in 1940, besides grazing 26 mother cows and their calves and several work horses and milk cows part of the time.

Success is attained not by lying awake at night, but by keeping awake in the daytime.

Production of American cheese-creamery butter and ice cream at Texas plants boomed during June, according to a report of the Texas search statisticians report. Creamery butter output was 12.6 per cent higher than in June, 1938. Total state-wide production was estimated by the bureau at 3,935,000 pounds. The bureau estimates cheese production for July at 2,190,000 pounds on the basis of reports from 21 firms, which turned out 9.5 per cent more cheese than in June, 1938. Ice cream production for the whole state was pegged at 1,863,000 gallons—9 per cent more than in June of last year, according to reports from 21 plants.

D. R.'s Economy Pledge Broken

The Democratic platform of 1932 declared: "We advocate an immediate and drastic reduction of government expenditures by abolishing useless commissions and offices, consolidating departments and bureaus, and eliminating extravagance, to accomplish a saving of not less than 25 per cent in the cost of Federal Government."

In the light of this pledge, let's look at the record.

Federal expenditures have increased under President Roosevelt from $3,794,000,000 in 1933 to $9,142,000,000 in 1939.

The total Federal expenditures increased by 141 per cent from 1933 to 1939. Largely thru an expansion of boards, commissions, personnel, and functions, the ordinary expenditures were increased 56 per cent from 1933 to 1939. Total emergency and relief expenditures were increased by 374 per cent from 1933 to 1939.

During the period of the New Deal, more than 75 new government agencies have been created, employing many thousands.

Reason for Surplus

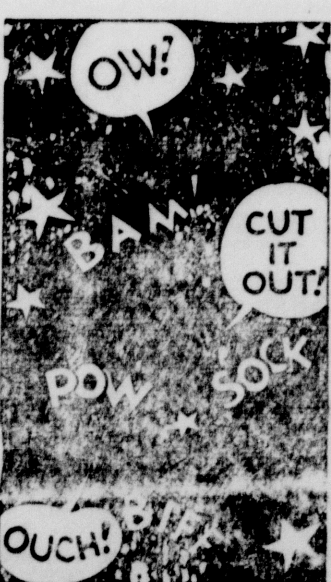

From July 1, 1937, through June 30, 1939, the Federal Surplus Commodities Corporation spent $30,479,000 in disposing of surpluses of 20 American farm commodities which were subject to tariff concessions under New Deal reciprocal trade agreements. During the same period we imported from foreign countries these same commodities to the value of $92,298,000.

Loss in Pork Products

America sold to foreign countries 84,175,000 pounds of hams, shoulders, bacon and sides in 1932. For 1938 our foreign sale of these products of American farms was only 3,559,000 pounds, despite New Deal trade agreements.

Washington Snapshots

JAMES PRESTON

Opinions here expressed are Preston's own and not necessarily those of this paper.—M. E.

A new axis pact may have been signed, but it certainly is stimulating Washington discussion of differences between America, virtually the island of representative democracy, and a totalitarian world.

Particularly does the discussion in the circles revolve around this nation already has gone, may progress in the future, to centralization of powers in the present.

A basic difference between totarianism and representative democracy is that in the first the state supremacy and its citizens and their rights subordinate to it, while in the second the state is supposed to be the servant of the people rather than their master.

That yardstick to measure trends, some legislators have been surprised. They have supposed new powers piece-meal, but total over-all result is surprising to them.

For example, the government has been able to destroy savings by changing money values; power to fix hours, old age pensions, relief allowances, business practices;
power to control farming methods, and on. That is only a partial picture of the whole.

And friendly and beneficent government naturally would use these powers for the benefit of the people. But the power to give a man razes could be used to give him razes; in short, existing "social" rights could be used to destroy virtually all the rights and privileges of people.

they would add to the "security" average citizen. But just look at the HOLC, for example. It has lost in its Omaha area it has lost $5,178,000 on which it had to foreclose.
The government also has had to pay on 32,000 farms!

ment, including the President, the ports say the merit of his work is

The House evidently feels that it isn't its money's worth.
In another direction, House feeling is different. Its Appropriations committee once "suggested" that the Board should abolish its Economic Division. The Board instead changed the name to "Division Technical Service", transferred employees into the new division, and ahead. The average salary of transferred employees was $10 a year.

The House, instead of "suggesting", the has approved a section in a bill directing that no money sion whatever name.

THERE ARE TWO WAYS TO BAR- BECUE AT HOME

Almost any woman is made of stern enough stuff for an open-air barbecue once during the out-of-door season, even to cooking the meat herself over a smoking fire. Yet, the pleasure of eating a barbecue frequently, minus the discomfort, of heat and fighting off gnats and mosquitoes, may be enjoyed at home at any time by using the gas range, provided it is the modern time with controlled high-to-low temperatures.

A barbecue may be prepared by either of two ways—roasting in the oven if it is capable of maintaining a low temperature; or by broiling, if the range is the special new design with a deep, smokeless broiler and a burner having a radiant, which has become so popular.

The broiler barbecue requires a slightly longer cooking time than roasting in the oven by low temperature; but it is just as easy and the meat is tender and delicious in flavor.

For a small barbecue, use a rolled roast of lamb about two and three-fourths pounds in weight. Do not season the meat, as the sauce supplies the seasoning. The broiler should be preheated five minutes and the roast placed on the rack in the lowest position in the compartment—which is almost ten inches from the flame; the burner is turned to the lowest possible point to maintain a flame. This low temperature, plus the burner radiance, broils the meat through in one and three-quarter hours, with but one or two turnings required.

As in all barbecues, emphasis is placed upon the sauce served with the hot, thin slices of meat. The following is a recipe treasured in a Georgia family:

Barbecue Sauce
2-3 cup catsup
1-3 cup vinegar
1-3 cup Worcestershire sauce
1 tablespoon sugar
1 teaspoon prepared mustard
Few grains Cayenne
Juice and grated rind of 1 lemon 1 teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons meat drippings
1 medium onion, grated Combine all ingredients in a saucepan and boil over the simmer unit of a top gas burner for five minutes. Serve warm with slice of the meat.

For an oven-roasted barbecue, any one of these three types of meat may be used: eye of the round of beef, leg of pork, boned and rolled, or leg of lamb, boned and rolled.

Place a three-pound roast, unseasoned, on a trivet in an uncovered shallow roasting pan. Roast at a low oven temperature of 300 degrees Fahrenheit for one and three-quarter to two hours. If using the cold start method, five to eight minutes should be added to the roasting period.

What the Eye Sees

A teacher asked her children if anyone could give her the definition of a "net".

After some time thinking out the answer, one of the younger children put up his hand eagerly, and said:
"I know, teacher. A net is a lot of holes sewn together."—Exchange.

"Hats cost more than radios."
"What makes you think so?"
"Well, a sign in a window back there said: 'Hats, $10 up,' and we just passed another window with a sign that says: 'Radios, $10 down.'"

LARGEST UNINCORPORATED TOWN IN THE WORLD AN ENTIRE CITY THAT IS PRIVATELY OWNED

By Ernest Thorp
Kannapolis, N. C., Oct. 11.—Kannapolis has a population of over 30, 000 people and many who work at the cotton mills here live out of town.

I think that in a previous column
I mentioned most of the important mills and industrial institutions of Kannapolis, but it may interest the readers of the Anvil Herald to know that this city of over 30,000 inhabitants hasn't got a single policeman.
Deputy sheriffs take the place of police and the city is very orderly. All of the municipal affairs are handled by the Company, of which Charles A.
Cannon is the head.

In a conversation with Mr. J. R.
McKnight, owner of a cafe here, Mr.
McKnight said that thirty years ago Kannapolis was just a tiny village and he knew everyone living in the county, he was in the grocery business then and for the past 28 years he has been feeding folks, now he doesn't know one-third of the people who come into his cafe. The thing that makes Kannapolis so good, is that there is a pay-day every day.

A story was told me by a casual acquaintance, about young Joe Cannon, son of Jim Cannon, one of the founders of the city and its industries.

According to my informant, Joe used to like to have his fun, just like any normal youth and many times his daddy wished he would behave, but even he got a kick out of the youngster's capers. So one day while in Concord, a neighboring town, while Joe and a couple of his friends were feeling kinda high, a mountaineer drove his team and wagon loaded with apples into town.
Joe and his friend approached the old man and asked him what he would take for the whole outfit. The old mountaineer thought the youngsters were kiddin' him and put a pretty stiff price on the outfit, wagon, apples, old skinny horses and all.
Joe wrote him a check for the full amount and when he saw the name that was on the check he ran like a turkey for the bank and got it cashed.
Joe and his friends then paraded up and down the main street handing out apples to everyone they passed and when the wagon was unloaded they tried to find the old mountaineer so that they could give him back the outfit, but the old man was gone for the hills, so they had to find someone else to give the outfit to.

Another time this same Joe Cannon on another one of his funny moods, stepped into a Kannapolis bank and drew out $200 in nickels.
It was a busy Saturday afternoon and he paraded up the main street chunkin' handfuls of nickels right and left until they were all gone, just to see the kids and grown people dive after them. This time he blocked all traffic. It is said that in every way, the Cannons have been courteous, kind and considerate to their employees and generous to those who were in need. If you ever travel this way, it will be worth your while to visit the largest unincorporated city in the world.

THE SPINDLE CITY OF FRIEND- LINESS AND PROGRESS IN A COUNTY OF INDUSTRY AND AGRICULTURE

Gastonia, N. C., Oct. 12.—Fifty years ago Gastonia, County seat of Gaston, was a crossroad village; today, with 43 cotton mills in greater Gastonia containing over 600,000 spindles, is one of the important cities of the New South.

Favored by nature as to location and climate, Gastonia may justly claim that every factor upon which profitable textile manufacturing depends is to be found here—abundant raw materials; ample economical power, a plentiful supply of cooperative, native-born workers, splendid transportation facilities; and proximity to the richest markets of the nation.

Within a 100-mile radius of Gastonia there are 441 textile plants 8,842,673 spindles, 170,115 looms—and 2,250,000 people with a spend-able money income of approximately $800,000,000.00.

Here is an industrial city prepared for the future—a city of beautiful churches, modern homes and schools, healthful living conditions—with a sound conservative government which maintains a friendly attitude toward industry.

Gaston County, with its 104 textile plants, the largest number to be found in any county in the world, is known far and wide as the "Combed Cotton Yarn Manufacturing Center of America". Within its borders is manufactured more than 80% of all the fine combed cotton made in the United States.

Points of interest nearby Gastonia are: North Carolina Orthopedic Hospital; King's Mountain Battleground and National Military Park; Belmont Abbey, and many industrial plants.
Two hours drive from the famous mountains of Western North Carolina and five hours from the beach resorts of Carolina Coast. The present population of Gastonia is about 30,000, with an estimated 85% Native White population.

The RAYE PRESENTS

"CARSON CITY KID"—Friday and Saturday, western film in which the hero assumes the sobriquet for the purpose of tracking down and killing the murderer of his brother.
The culprit in this case is a smooth saloon keeper who has the local law jumping through his dirty hoop. The cast includes Roy Rogers, Bob Steele, Gabby Hayes, Noah Beery Sr., and Pauline Moore.

"MY LOVE CAME BACK"—Sunday and Monday, comedy with music, a notable cast including Olivia de Havilland, Jeffrey Lynn, Eddie Albert, Jane Wyman, Charles Winninger, Spring Byington and William Orr. The plot concerns an academy of music, its youthful students, rich patrons and the inevitable tug-of-war between the classics and saving.

"I WANT A DIVORCE"—Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday comedy mingled with pathos for an entertaining preachment on divorce.
Dick Powell and Joan Powell head a cast composed of Gloria Dickson, Frank Fay, Jessie Ralph, Conrad Nagel, and Sidney Blackmer.

WATCH OUT FOR TRAPS

A constitutional amendment among four to be voted on at the general election November 5, although appearing on its face to deal with a local matter in a far Northeast Texas county, actually involves a dangerous tax precedent, in the opinion of Ray Leeman, executive vice president of the South Texas Chamber of Commerce.

The amendment would provide
"that the commissioners court of Red River County may, upon a vote of the qualified electors therein, levy a tax and issue bonds to refund the outstanding warrant indebtedness of the general fund of such county."

"A great many counties in Texas have incurred indebtedness by over-spending," Leeman pointed out,
"and they have issued warrants in a manner similar to Red River. If the amendment is voted for that county, other counties in the same condition plausibly would seek the same privilege, which might cost Texas taxpayers millions of dollars."

"On the other hand, there are many counties in Texas which are run on a cash basis, demonstrating that it can be done.
"Every taxpayer in the state should give this proposed amendment careful consideration."

Leeman quoted from a recent issue of the Texas Tax Journal, which said:

"It will be a sad day for Texas to adopt this amendment, and pave the way for many counties, cities and districts to have the taxpayers pay for extravagance of former years."

ARE WE SICK?

William R. Kuhns, editor of Banking, recently stepped hard on the defeatist doctrine which holds that democracies can't match the efficiency of the totalitarian states, and can't survive in a world which has largely been socialized, sovietized or nazified.

"Where did this idea come from and why should it have such popular acceptance and distinguished sponsorship among writers and public leaders?" asks Mr. Kuhns. "Can it be that we're not feeling well? Are we going to be sick?"

"Totalitarian layouts, particularly if they are either ruthless or desperate, enjoy an advantage in war and foreign trade arrangements. But after all there is nothing to stop us from meeting economic and military competition . . . without changing our creed or our habits."

Unless the lessons of history are all wrong, a system of free enterprise, other factors being equal, is always more than a match for a system based on slave enterprise—and "slave enterprise" is about as accurate a descriptive term as can be devised for totalitarian methods. There isn't a nation in the world with a tithe of the potential economic power of the United States. We have a banking structure adapted to both national and international commerce which is the envy of the earth. We have an economic system based on gold—not a system based on the frail sands of barter and financial blackmail.

Potentially we have unequalled

CELEBRATION A SUCCESS

The annual firemen's celebration held Sunday, Oct. 13, for the benefit of the Volunteer Fire Department can be termed a huge success. Authoritative reports state a profit of several hundred dollars was cleared but the approximate figure has not as yet been determined.

The fire boys wish to thank everyone who assisted with the preparations and all who attended in making the event the most successful ever sponsored by the Fire Department.

The activities began at 11:30 with the serving of a grand barbecue and sausage dinner with all the trimmings.

Addresses were delivered in the afternoon by several public officials. Keno, a country store, and other amusements kept the large crowd entertained until the serving of supper at five o'clock.

Buddy Hancock and his orchestra furnished the music for the ball at night. Prizes were awarded Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Schott of Bandera for the oldest couple on the floor. Mr. and Mrs. Willie Biediger of Spindletop were judged the best waltzers and Mr. Louis Schott of here and Miss Clara Schott of Rio Medina were declared the best schottische dancers.

10:00 A. M. English divine service. "Perhaps a new dark age is coming upon the world. If so, it is the more reason for Christians to gird up their loins and strengthen their own faith. It is not enough to wring our hands over political and religious misfortunes in Europe, while we neglect our own civil liberties and allow our church to be half empty."

CASTROVILLE HOLDS POTH TO 12-18 SCORE

Castroville, Texas, Oct. 4.—The Castroville Public High School Comets 6 man football team made an impressive stand for their last home game by holding the short end of a 12-18 score in their game with the heavier Poth High School Panthers.

The Panthers squad unleashed a "Davey O'Brien" in their captain, "Ox" Wilson, who bullet passed with streamlined smoothness to "Tubbie" Zunker almost at will.

One rangy Norbert Ahr, wingman of the Comets, took defensive honors with his many hard tackles, but was closely followed by Captain Arthur Wielten at fullback who missed only a very few.

military power no less than economic power. The defeatists in our midst would do well to study the history of what this country has achieved in considerably less than two centuries.

—Industrial News Review.

"While I was in Chicago last week the 'Defend America by Defending Britain' committee staged a mass meeting—largely of gold coast intellectuals—in the coliseum. It was harangued by several eminent breast-beating war criers. All they ask now is to strip our inadequate Army Air Force of 50 of its flying fortresses and detach from our Navy the mosquito torpedo boats which Congress recently prevented the President from sending to Britain. How this kind of thing could be done lawfully—even under the attorney general's honey opinion by which the destroyers were detached without even consulting Congress—doesn't appear. These people don't care. They don't even worry about that, because they know the President doesn't care either."

—Not this parrot but his erstwhile friend, General Hugh S. Johnson, brings this indictment against Roosevelt and Rooseveltian ways.

Rich in resources and skilled in manufacture, we stand today fully capable not only of protecting ourselves from annihilation but of building even greater than ever before. But it can be done only if there are men big enough to put country above self. Not one but dozens and hundreds of such men are needed to pull America through. Surely, America has bred them.—Selected.

The consistency of the politician is shown by those who are as mum as clams over Roosevelt calling two Republicans to his cabinet and insisting on a Republican for a running-mate and then tearing their pajamas because some fellow is suspected of acting independent of party action.

"Working for government and living off government has become the great American profession and is continually being promoted, developed, and expanded."—W. Arthur Simpson, Director of Old Age Assistance, Vermont.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Little Jo Ann Koch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Koch of Hondo, celebrated her fifth birthday anniversary at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. George Leinweber, on Saturday, Oct. 12, 1940.

The afternoon was spent playing various games and prizes were given to the best contestants. Refreshments consisted of birthday cake, punch and cookies, and colored whistles were the favors. The birthday cake was a two-tiered angel food, beautifully decorated with sugar-spun flowers and lettered with "Happy Birthday" greeting.

Young guests of the honoree included Mary Louise Bendele, Jerry Koch, Fanell and Betty Louise Neuman, John Allen Breiten, Morton, Gordon and Peggy Ann Mecher, Charles Meyer, Marilyn Bendele, Mary Jo Meyer, Barbara Ann Graff, Freda Louise Brucks, and her brother, George Daniel Koch. The mothers of the children, and Jo Ann's mother, her grandmother, Mrs. George Leinweber and her aunt, Miss Johanna Leinweber, were also present.

MAKING GOOD IN NAVY

The many friends of Joseph P. Ney, son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Ney Sr., of Hondo, Texas, will be glad to learn of the fine showing he has made in the U. S. Navy. Young Ney enlisted through the Navy Recruiting Station, San Antonio, Texas, May 10, 1939, and is well pleased with the treatment he gets in the U. S. Navy. He was promoted to Seaman First Class after being in the service one year and at present is attached to the U. S. S. Brooklyn, according to word received by the Navy Recruiting Station, San Antonio, Texas.

D'HANIS COWBOYS DEFEAT BIG WELLS 30-0 IN NON-CONFERENCE GAME

The D'Hanis Cowboys, playing without the services of their regular quarterback, Buddy Biry, put on fast driving last half to out-play Big Wells High School 30-0. The Cowboys got off to a slow start, allowed the Big Wells team to get almost at will for the first half. D'Hanis scored early in the second quarter when James Wolff punted over from the six-yard line for a first tally. One feature of the game was the fine defensive work of Ed Boog, who was shifted to end from center. Big Lawrence Racer accounted for two touchdowns, passes. Jimmie Zinsmeyer scored a point on a line play. The Cowboys get a rest this week, since they were unable to schedule a game after Barksdale dropped out of the district. La Pryor comes to D'Hanis on October 24th for a non-conference game. The Cowboys have won three games and lost one, having scored 11 points to their opponent's 24 points. James Love, who was injured in a Camp Wood game is almost ready to go again.

More farmers are going into turkey business, but smaller flocks are the rule and a 2 percent decrease in number of turkeys is indicated for 1940 as compared with 1939, according to a preliminary study made by the USDA Agricultural Market Service. Generally, the South Central and Western states, including Texas, show decreases of about 10 percent; the South Atlantic states decrease of 12 percent; and the North Atlantic and North Central states decreases ranging from 5 to 10 percent. It all adds up to a 2 percent decrease in the turkey population. An extensive survey of turkey flocks will be made in September in order to determine the number of turkeys in sight for market. Shortly after Texas turkey growers will see the first indication of the market they may expect.
